Call for nominations for ICIAM Prizes for 2007

The ICIAM Prize Committee for 2007 now calls for nominations for the five ICIAM Prizes to be awarded in 2007. Each ICIAM Prize has its own special character, but each one is truly international in character. Nominations are therefore welcomed from every part of the world. A nomination should take into account the specifications for a particular prize, and should contain the following information:

- full name of person nominated;
- name of the particular ICIAM Prize;
- short citation supporting the nomination;
- short CV of the nominee
- name of the proposer or proposers.

The nomination should be sent to:

Professor IH Sloan
President of ICIAM
School of Mathematics
University of New South Wales
Sydney, NSW 2052
Australia
or by email (preferred) to: i.sloan@unsw.edu.au or by fax to: +61 2 9385 7123.

The nomination must be submittted by 15 February 2006.

ICIAM, the International Council for Industrial and Applied Mathematics, is the world organisation for applied mathematics and computational science. Its members are mathematical sciences societies based in more than 20 countries. For more information, see the Council's web page at http://www.iciam.org/.
